

Philip G. Rahrig

For the past 17 years, Mr. Rahrig has been the Executive Director of the American Galvanizers Association, working in all facets of market/product promotion and positioning, as well as in technical support. Additionally he is responsible for worldwide coordination of objectives with international organizations with common industry interests, such as the European General Galvanizers Association and the International Zinc Association. His prior experience includes 10 years with U.S. Steel Distribution Division and IBM. He is a graduate of Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio with a BSBA Management degree and extensive studies in physics.